

National Extension Scheme and Community Projects

Q.—784. Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY (Malur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) when the Community Project and the National Extension Service Schemes were introduced in the Shimoga and other parts of the State as part of the Five-year Plan;

(b) the amount so far spent on them;

(c) the results obtained therefrom;

(d) whether they contemplate to start any more Community Projects and National Extension Service Schemes in the other parts of the State;

(e) if so, when and where?

A.—Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA (Minister for Agriculture).—

(a) Community Project started functioning from 2nd October 1952. National Extension Service Scheme was introduced in the State on 2nd October 1953 in the following seven National Extension Service Blocks:—

- (1) Gundlupet Taluk.
- (2) Ramanagaram-Kanakapura Taluks.
- (3) Hole-Narasipur-Arkalgud Taluks.
- (4) Harihar-Davangere Taluks.
- (5) Koppa-Narasimharajapura Taluks.
- (6) Sidlaghatta Taluk.
- (7) Turuvekere Taluk.

(b) Total amount spent on Community Project to end of 22nd March 1954 is Rs. 3,70,680.

Total amount spent on National Extension Service Blocks for the period up to 13th March 1954 is Rs. 11,912-4-0.

(c) For Community Project, please see Appendix to Question No. 750 answered on 31st March 1954. National Extension Service Blocks—Preliminary work of Block and Village Statistics, and survey of the areas are being attended to. Preparation of works programme and plans and estimates have been taken up in some Blocks.

(d) No more Community Projects are contemplated for the present.

More National Extension Service Blocks are proposed to be started for the next year and year after that.

(e) It is proposed to start 8 more National Extension Service Blocks during the year 1954-55 and 12 during 1955-56 making in all 27 Blocks. The approval of Planning Commission to this programme has not yet been received.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—Has the Hon'ble Minister for Community Projects visited the scene of operations of community projects recently, Sir?

Mr. SPEAKER.—This has come up for the fourth time.

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—Yes, Sir, I have.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that the pace of progress is very slow, Sir?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—As I have said before, since the last six or eight weeks, the pace of progress has improved. I expect to get considerable work done before the monsoon sets in.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—You have been pleased to mention that no more community projects are contemplated for the present. What is the idea in having community projects only in one area and not extending it to other areas of the State, Sir?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—It was the Government of India that allotted the community projects. Now they have been allotting the National Extension Service Blocks.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—What is the difference between the two, Sir? Is it not the same work that is being done under both the schemes?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—There is a good bit of difference. In the community project, the work is more intensive and the finances involved also are much more considerable than in the National Extension Service. But the underlying idea of getting the villagers to start doing things that are needed by the villages is the same under both.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—Is it the idea of the Government to extend the National Extension Service Scheme to all the taluks so that the standard of progress might be brought to the same level under the Community Projects?

Mr. SPEAKER.—There is the answer in (e).

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—Has the Government any scheme, Sir, by which the pace of progress contemplated under these schemes is increased?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—Yes.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—A period of three years has elapsed since the plan of Community Project in Sorab and Shikaripur was started. What more time is fixed for the completion of the remaining work, Sir?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—It was only one year on the 2nd October 1953 and it is not three years. It is just about six months after one year.

Sri H. C. LINGA REDDY.—May I know who have provided the figures to the Centre so far as the work done by the Community Project is concerned? Is it the State Government or the Chairman of the Community Projects?

Dr. R. NAGAN GOWDA.—I want notice for that.
